JUNE and JULY 2025

Living out our faith

Being the hands and feet of Jesus, serving with open minds and hearts.

We exist to be a community of welcome and worship where people find peace, purpose, and power through Jesus Christ.

In the many years spent in school, and then working in schools, somehow I got into the practice and the habit of looking at the month of June as the end of the work part of the year, and the beginning of the “take it a lot easier” part of the life cycle.

While it is still true that this is the time of year that we celebrate with our high school and post-secondary school graduates, I now understand better that this is not the end, it really marks the beginning.

Just as eternity begins when we decide to follow Christ (even while still in THIS life) so too does summer mark the chance to continue to grow in Christ. We might indeed have less places we have to be than during the school year, but that should give us opportunity to think about and apply the lessons He has been working with us on for the past couple of months.

Immediately after Jesus’s baptism in Matthew 3 (his “graduation” if I can call it that) he went into the wilderness to fast for 40 days and 40 nights and to be tempted by Satan. In each case he resisted the traps by quoting scripture...in essence, by falling back on the lessons he had been taught leading up to that point in his life. Because he was able to demonstrate that he had learned well, he showed that he was ready for the “adult” part of life.

So, the point is that summer is not a time to automatically give back all the hard-earned gains we have made in our spiritual lives over the past year. Maybe it is a more “relaxed” time... a time of better weather, outside activities, swimming, picnics and fireworks, but it is also a time for us to practice and apply what we have learned to grow closer to Him.

You're going places!

Commencement marks the beginning of a new stage of life, with graduates heading off to discover opportunities and face challenges. Oh, the Places You'll Go! — a Dr. Seuss book that's now a popular graduation gift — whimsically explores life's ups and downs, twists and turns.

Young adults will face excitement and slumps, fun and loneliness. They'll feel a sense of purpose as well as confusion and even fear. "There are some [things], down the road between hither and yon, that can scare you so much you won't want to go on," writes Dr. Seuss.

In the storybook, the life-traveler's sheer determination propels him beyond difficulties. But God's children don't need to journey alone. Our heavenly Father walks beside us on every winding path and around every corner. Life cannot take us anywhere God hasn't been first. Graduates — and all Christians — can trust in the promise of Joshua 1:9 (NRSV): "Be strong and courageous ... for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

James by Percival Everett

When the enslaved Jim overhears that he is about to be sold to a man in New Orleans, separated from his wife and daughter forever, he decides to hide on nearby Jackson Island until he can formulate a plan. Meanwhile, Huck Finn has faked his own death to escape his violent father, recently returned to town. As all readers of American literature know, thus begins the dangerous and transcendent journey by raft down the Mississippi River toward the elusive and too-often-unreliable promise of the Free States and beyond.

While many narrative set pieces of Adventures of Huckleberry Finn remain in place (floods and storms, stumbling across both unexpected death and unexpected treasure in the myriad stopping points along the river's banks, encountering the scam artists posing as the Duke and Dauphin...), Jim's agency, intelligence and compassion are shown in a radically new light.

The Briar Club by Kate Quinn

Washington, D.C., 1950. Everyone keeps to themselves at Briarwood House, a down-at-the-heels all-female boardinghouse in the heart of the nation's capital, where secrets hide behind white picket fences. But when the lovely, mysterious widow Grace March moves into the attic, she draws her oddball collection of neighbors into unlikely friendship: poised English beauty Fliss whose facade of perfect wife and mother covers gaping inner wounds; police officer's daughter Nora, who is entangled with a shadowy gangster; frustrated baseball star Bea, whose career has ended along with the women's baseball league of WWII; and poisonous, gung-ho Arlene, who has thrown herself into McCarthy's Red Scare.

Grace's weekly attic-room dinner parties and window-brewed sun tea become a healing balm on all their lives, but she hides a terrible secret of her own. When a shocking act of violence tears apart the house, the Briar Club women must decide once and for all: Who is the true enemy in their midst?
